NENA Supports Renomination of FCC Chairman Kevin Martin

Arlington, VA – The National Emergency Number Association (NENA) today announced its full support of President Bush's renomination of Federal Communications Commission (FCC) Chairman Kevin Martin.

"NENA is pleased to support the renomination of Kevin Martin who has shown to be a tireless advocate for 9-1-1 and emergency communications issues," said NENA President David Jones, ENP. "Under the leadership of Kevin Martin the deployment of enhanced 9-1-1 (E9-1-1) services has been a top priority. We thank Chairman Martin for his commitment and focus on 9-1-1 issues, and look forward to continuing to work with him on these important issues."
